Historic sites and parks touched by inundated land at 3 ft of sea-level rise

City

Downtown (dashed box)

Newly inundated, ocean-connected (slr)
Newly inundated, low-lying unconnected (low)
Land already inundated at 0 ft (MHHW)
Historic site at risk
Historic site not at risk
Park at risk
Park not at risk

Historic sites at risk: 7 of 70 (7 named)
- 1513 Ponce Landing Memorial
- Castillo de San Marcos
- Hot Shot Furnace
- Lincolnville Historic District
- Menendez Settlement Field
- Ravelin
- Wakeman House

Parks at risk: 22 of 31 (14 named)
- Anastasia State Park
- Anderson Circle
- Dr Robert B. Hayling Freedom Park
- Eddie Vickers Park
- Gibbs Park
- Government House Yard
- Lighthouse Park
- Nelmar Terrace Park
- Oglethorpe Battery Park
- Plaza de la Constitución
- Pomar Park
- Ponce de León Circle
- Railway Park
- Zora Neale Hurston Memorial Park

Sources: NOAA Office for Coastal Management Sea Level Rise Viewer data (FL_NE); U.S. Census Bureau TIGER/Line 2025 places and area water; © OpenStreetMap contributors (ODbL). NAD83 / UTM zone 17N.